A. Announcements / Upcoming Events

1. Academic Peer Adviser Job Opening!

- The Animal Science Advising Center is looking for an academic peer adviser for the 2015-2016 academic year. If you are interested in advising students in Animal Science, Animal Science and Management, and Agricultural and Environmental Education, and contributing to the success of the Animal Science Department, please consider applying for the position.
- Peer advisers will work up to 10 hours per week and this is a paid position.
- Applicants for this position must be available for all three quarters - Fall 2015, Winter 2016, and Spring 2016. If hired, you will also be required to participate in the new Peer Adviser training course offered this Spring 2015: EDU 160, 4 units Pass/No Pass, at 8:00-9:50am Mondays and Wednesdays in Scrub Oak Auditorium.
- We are looking for candidates who can communicate accurate information about our majors and other college requirements while representing the department in a positive manner. Please see the attached job description for more information.
- The application is attached and applicants must provide a resume. The completed application and resume are due to the ASAC (1202 Meyer Hall) by Monday, February 23rd at 4pm.
- If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Emma Martinez at eadmartinez@ucdavis.edu or (530) 752-6118.

2. Spring Commencement and Candidacy Information – Opening this Sunday!

- Spring 2015 Candidacy opens on Sunday, February 1st, 2015. To apply for graduation/candidacy, please fill out the Online Graduation Application at <http://registrar.ucdavis.edu/graduation/>, or stop by 12 Mrak Hall to fill out a graduation application in person.

- If you're planning on graduating soon, then it's time to start thinking about Commencement! The Spring Ceremony for ANS, ANM, and AEE majors will be held on Sunday, June 14th at 2:00 pm in the ARC Pavilion.
- Registration to participate in Commencement opens on February 1st and will close on April 10th. To register, please visit <http://commencement.ucdavis.edu/registration.html>
- You can also apply to be a student speaker for the commencement ceremony. The deadline to apply is April 10th. To apply, please visit: http://commencement.ucdavis.edu/general_info/index.html#speaker
- Students who register to participate in the ceremony by the April 10th deadline will be guaranteed 7 guest tickets.

- This year's Grad Fair will take place on March 4th from 9am-6pm in the MU Griffin Lounge.
- Please refer to the attached documents for the student speaker application, cap and gown information, and graduation checklist.

3. Important Dates for Winter 2015

- As we continue this quarter, it's important to keep certain important dates in mind:
 - Monday, February 2nd : 20th Day of Instruction
 - Last day to drop classes with a 20-day drop deadline
 - Monday, February 9th: 25th Day of Instruction
 - Last day to opt for P/NP grading. Please note that you CANNOT opt any major courses P/NP, all major requirements must be taken for a grade.

4. Changes to ANS 136A and 136B!

- ANS 136A and 136B are no longer being offered! From now on, ANS 136 will be offered in Fall and ANS 137 will be offered in Spring.
- If you have already taken 136A, please contact Dr. Hung at sshung@ucdavis.edu about completing the ANS 136 series. You will need to enroll in a separate ANS 198 course in order to complete the requirement.

5. New ANS Spring Course Updates!

- We've created a few new courses in the Animal Science Department! These courses are designed to help students define their career paths, offer more relevant coursework to Animal Science majors, and provide units toward specialization. These courses will not appear in Schedule Builder or the Class Search Tool, you must type in the CRN directly to find them.
- NOTE: When searching these courses on Schedule Builder, it may have a warning stating that you need consent of the instructor to take the course. Do not worry about this warning; it is there because the courses are brand new and still listed as ANS 98/198. You can register for these courses without needing consent of the instructor, as long as you have the CRN.
- ANS 98-033 (will later become ANS 30): Topics and Careers in Animal Science (2 units)
 - This course is for sophomores looking for more career options within Animal Science. It will be taught by Dana Van Liew, and will be held Wednesdays from 1:10-5:00pm.
 - Enrollment cap is currently at 20 students; sophomores will be given first priority.
 - This is currently scheduled as a variable unit course. After officially adding to the course, you will need to manually change the course units to 2 (via Schedule Builder).
 - CRN: TBA

- ANS 198-033 (will later become ANS 100): Animal Physiology (5 units)
 - This course provides a more relevant alternative to the NPB 101 major requirement, and is accepted by vet schools for their physiology requirement. It will be taught by Dr. Todgham and will be held Monday through Friday from 10:00-10:50am.
 - Enrollment cap is currently at 100 students, but the course is Pass 1 restricted to Animal Science majors.
 - This course is NOT open for credit to any student who has completed NPB 101 with a grade of D- or better.
 - This is currently scheduled as a variable unit course. After officially adding to the course, you will need to manually change the course units to 5 (via Schedule Builder).
 - CRN: 21539
- ANS 198-044 (will later become ANS 150): Animal Health and Disease (4 units)
 - This course may be used towards specialization units! It is taught by Dr. Zhou and will be held Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:00-10:20am, and Wednesdays from 12:10-1:00pm. There may be alternative discussion times available.
 - This is currently scheduled as a variable unit course. After officially adding to the course, you will need to manually change the course units to 4 (via Schedule Builder).
 - CRN: 21550

6. Changes to the VMCAS Vet School Application Cycle!

- If you're interested in applying to vet school this year, keep in mind that VMCAS has completely updated their system!
- The new VMCAS application window for the 2015-2016 cycle opens on May 13th, 2015, and closes on September 15th, 2015.

8. New Veterinary School Admits: Congratulations on your Achievements!

- On behalf of the Animal Science Department, we'd like to congratulate the newly admitted students to all the Schools of Veterinary Medicine! All of your time, brain power, and hard work have paid off.
- At the Advising Center, we try to encourage current undergraduates and prospective students in their endeavors. Veterinary school is often a common goal. One of the best ways we can help students develop their understanding of the rigors of vet school is by providing current statistics and information about successful applicants, and the steps they took to be accepted.
- If you were just recently admitted to veterinary school, and would like to help your peers and future students achieve their dream career, we would greatly appreciate if you could take the time to fill out the attached Vet School Survey. Completed surveys can be submitted to the Animal Science Advising Center, either by email at asac@ucdavis.edu, or in person in 1202 Meyer Hall.
- Based on the information from the survey, we can compile statistics to display in the Advising Center for current students to view. Many students view the information to see what criteria make a competitive applicant, and it gives them a goal to work toward as an undergraduate.
- In the future, we hope to create a story wall of successful applicants, to give more background information in addition to the statistics. If you're interested in being featured, stay tuned for more information.
- Thank you for your time and contribution, and congratulations again on your success!

9. Health Professions Advising: First Year Small Group Advising

- There will be several upcoming meetings offered through Health Professions Advising. Here is a list of the upcoming meetings:
 - Health Professions Application Timeline: February 5th at 3:00 pm in SLB 2061
 - Effective Communication Strategies for the Future Health Professional: February 19th at 2:00 pm in SLB 2061.

10. Comprehensive Rural Health Project and Experiential Course

- The Comprehensive Rural Health Project (CHRP), located in Maharashtra, India, is an opportunity for students to learn about sustainable farming in a rural Indian context. Participants will have the opportunity to learn from local farmers, agriculture professionals, and community groups about agriculture in rural India.
- Participants are housed in western style accommodations both on the main CHRP campus and at the demonstration farm. The campus contains a hospital, international mess hall, various training facilities, and library with internet.
- This is a unique hands-on experience for students to discover how farmers around the world, while suffering from similar conditions, approach problem-solving and sustainable farming methods differently based on socio-economic and cultural contexts.
- You can become a part of their training programs through the Experiential Course in Sustainable Agriculture, offered July 2015. Please see the attached brochure and tentative course schedule for more information.

11. Bald Head Island Conservancy: Summer Internship Opportunities.

- Bald Head Island Conservancy is a non-profit organization located in North Carolina that focuses on barrier island conservation, preservation, and education.
- They offer three internships in the areas of environmental education, sea turtle protection, and coastal ecology conservation. For more information on these paid internship opportunities, please see the attached internship flyer and fact sheet, or visit their website for more information: <http://www.bhic.org/internship-opportunities>. Applications are due soon!
