Join us for UC Davis Horse Day 2019!

Demonstrations and Discussions with Experts

Held at our Animal Science Horse Barn facility on Saturday, October 19th, it will be a day filled with workshops dedicated to continuing education for the horse owner and enthusiast. This year our event offers four sessions, with many discussions taking place twice. This gives spectators even more opportunities to learn about their favorite topics! At UC Davis Horse Day, you will have the chance to interact with the animals, talk to the experts and be more involved with the materials.

A special presentation by the Backcountry Horsemen of California, Mother Lode Unit and the UC Davis Interscholastic Packing Teams will take place at lunch. The day will then wrap up with Equestrians in Harmony presenting an exciting vaulting demonstration.

Whether your interests lie with reproduction, nutrition or lameness, there is sure to be something to attract you to Horse Day!
